Art Unit: 1731

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-14 and 18-29 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,368,525.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims differ mainly in the obvious step of removing the cast material from a mold.

3. Claims 2,3 and 5-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 2, the phrase "the volatile component" has no antecedent basis.

In claim 3, the phrase "the volatile component" has no antecedent basis.

Claim 5 is indefinite in that it refers to "vacuum applied in step (b)". There is no vacuum applied in step (b).

Claim 6 is indefinite in that it refers to a ceramic article in step (a). Step (a) does not have a ceramic article.

Art Unit: 1731

Claim 7 is indefinite in that it refers to a ceramic article in step (b), but no ceramic article exists in step (b).

In claim 8, the phrase "the volatile component" has no antecedent basis.

Claim 8 is indefinite in that it refers to freezing in step (a). The freezing does not occur in step (a).

Claim 9 is indefinite in that it refers to an article in step (b), but no article exists in step (b).

Claim 11 refers to treating a green article prior to step (a) in claim 1, but the green body does not exist until it is formed in step (b).

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
